

WHO HAS A BROTHER?

Teacher / Leader

Children

Who has a bro - ther? I have a bro - ther.

Who has a sis - ter? I have a sis - ter.

Who has blue eyes? I have blue eyes

Who has brown eyes? I have brown eyes

Who has pur - ple eyes? (At this point there should be 4 beats of silence before continuing)

This is a CALL and RESPONSE game.

The leader asks the children a question using a four beat phrase and the children respond with 'I have...' if the statement is true for them.

If a ridiculous question is asked that is obviously not true for anybody, there should be four beats of silence.

When initially teaching this game it can take the children a while to respond in time and there can be discussions about colour of eyes, what they are wearing and whether step-brothers count etc.

When they are familiar with the game they keep in time really well.

Further suggestions for questions:

- Who has short hair?
- Who has long hair?
- Who's wearing blue?
- Who's wearing red?
- Who likes football?
- Who likes music?
